Strengthen your musical proficiency while playing with others!

This class is designed to help music students who are already proficient in their instruments to connect with their bandmates and the audience who listens to them. Students will collectively bring in and choose songs to perform and work on arrangements to get a head start to the Fall 2024 class.

- Become more comfortable playing in time with others
- Preparing for a performance
- Improvising
- Listening and agreeing on arrangements
- Past ensembles have performed Vulfpeck, Stevie Wonder, Corrinne Bailey Rae, Bob Marley, and more

Required materials for the class:

- Your chosen instrument that you are already proficient with
- Writing utensil and notebook
- One piece to work on and perform

"I came to Renaissance School specifically because Mr. Pun teaches music in such a fun way."

"Music Ensemble at Renaissance School is unlike any other band or orchestra class. We learn how to improvise and vibe with each other, not just play the notes on a page."

Registration for the Summer Ensemble summer class at Renaissance School is open. Class size is limited to ten students and spots are assigned on a first-come, first-served basis, so register early to ensure your place.
